

Shaped by History & Anchored in Nature

As Fort DuPont preserves our past and reshapes our history, we invite you to join our community. This newsletter will share events and updates about programs and projects to bring Delaware City closer together and help Fort DuPont's neighbors appreciate our location's natural and historical heritage.

Up for a Quick Road Trip? Visit Artworth Creations in Delaware City!

One of the things that brings us the most joy at Fort DuPont is being involved in our local community and supporting our small businesses.

On that note, many of us at Fort DuPont were privileged recently to visit Artworth Creations on Clinton Street in downtown Delaware City.

We have some talented artists in our area; you can view much of their artwork at this local gem.

Loveland Appointed Permanent City Manager of Delaware City

All of us at Fort DuPont extend our warmest congratulations to the new city manager of Delaware City, Britney Loveland.

Britney's hard work and dedication as the acting city manager, and as the Delaware City Land Use Administrator before that, allowed her to seamlessly move in to her new role as of mid-September.

We're lucky to have a good working relationship with Delaware City, and we certainly expect that to only strengthen with Britney at the helm.

Lynn Dilliplane To Be Sworn In as New Delaware City Council Member

Welcome to the council, Lynn! We look forward to continuing the special relationship between Delaware City and historic Fort DuPont for many years to come.
